COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17.

BEING a Hindoo holiday, we have had an extremely quiet day in business generally, and transactions in nearly every branch have been within very lim ted lines.

From London Consols come unaltered at 100⅝, as also French Rentes at 118½; but the 3½ per cent. Indian Loan is ¼ higher at 103¼, whilst Rupee Paper shows a decline of ¼ in Fours-and-a-half and ¼ in Fours. Indian Exchange Bank shares are unmoved throughout.

In the Produce markets Coffee and Cocoanut Oil keep without change. Rapeseed is firm, and partially 6d. per quarter higher for Calcutta qualities. Bombay Wheat in Liverpool is quoted by Reuter at 9s. 9d. for No. 1 Soft White and 8s. 11½d. for No. 2, being an advance of 3d. and 4d. per cental respectively. Private messages, however, reported the improvement some days ago.

Piece-goods in Manchester are called firm, but prices are the same as on Friday last.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday closed firm both for American and Surats,—the former being again 1-16d. higher on the spot, but unchanged to arrive; and the latter unaltered throughout, although they are evidently meeting with more attention, 800 bales having changed hands yesterday out of the 10,000 bales given as the total day's sales. In New York yesterday Mid-Uplands were unaltered, both ready and forward, at 12¼ cents and 10·75 cents. per lb. respectively. The receipts at the U. S. ports to date are as follow :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Monday's Receipts	3,000	1,100	600
Four days' do.	11,000	4,000	2,300
Total since 1st Sept	5,735,000	4,919,000	4,412,000

As regards the Washington Agricultural Bureau's report received yesterday, Reuter now further informs us that injury from drought has been the cause of the deterioration during the past month from 95 to 88 per cent. To our thinking, however, the reason assigned renders the latter reduced figure all the more doubtful—as Cotton, after all, is a dry-weather plant, requiring little moisture, once a good stand has been secured—and people on this side, therefore, should be all the more cautious about adopting reduced crop estimates on the face of the current report.

EXCHANGE.—Reuter's message this morning confirming the advance in Silver to 51 9-16d. per oz., as reported through private sources yesterday, our market to-day opened firm at an advance of 1-32d., and later on telegraphic was obtainable at 1s. 7 25-32d. No great extent of business has been done, however, as both buyers and sellers, as usual, prefer waiting the result of to-day's biddings for Council drafts in London. A very general idea appears to prevail that the minimum will be fixed at 1s. 7¾d., and if so the probability is that we shall see somewhat easier feeling to-morrow. Closing quotations to-day for ready paper are :—

Bank Bills on demand	..1s. 7 25-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic.. ..	..1s. 7⅞ to 25-32d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight..	..1s. 7¾d.	"
Credits, 3 "	..1s. 8 1-32d.	"
Documents, 3 "	..1s. 8 1-16d.	"

On Calcutta we quote par for demand, and ⅛ per cent. for 60 days' sight.

GOVERNMENT PAPER.—Late yesterday some transactions took place in Fours at Rs. 101¼, and this was nominally the opening rate this morning on the part of buyers, but no sellers were to be found under Rs. 101½, and eventually business to some extent was done at this rate, and afterwards Rs. 101 9-16. Fours-and-a-half have recovered to Rs. 110½, and the market for the time being wears a somewhat steadier aspect. This is the more noticeable in the face of the Bombay's rates of discount having been advanced one per cent. making the minimum 6 per cent. per annum; but possibly something is due to the fact that this had practically been the change for some days past, and the increase had accordingly been to some extent discounted. The future of the market is still full of uncertainty, as it is very questionable to what extent weak holders have succeeded in unloading; but there can be little doubt that we are now down to a much more reasonable level, and one from which the possibilities of a fall are much less than they were a short time ago.

The SHARE MARKET has been closed.

In COTTON there has been no new business reported, nor is there any change in rates.

WHEAT and SEEDS continue in strong request at fully previous prices.

FREIGHTS continue firm, and owing to an active demand for tonnage in Calcutta, there are few steamers offering for homeward charter from here. A boat was fixed yesterday for October loading at 43s. 9d., payable here, for Genoa or Marseilles, or 45s., both ports, with concessions and commission; and another vessel is said to have been fixed to-day at 37s. 6d., payable at port of discharge, for U. K. or Marseilles, with concessions.

In PIECE-GOODS there is nothing doing the market being practically closed.

COALS show no change.

A REPORT showing the liquidation of the estates of the late firms of W. Nicol and Co. of Bombay and Fleming and Co. of Kurrachee was submitted to a meeting of their creditors held yesterday. The admitted claims aggregate Rs. 1,07,34,641-7, a dividend of 12½ per cent. on which has absorbed Rs. 13,41,830. The cost of liquidation up to date has been Rs. 84,824, inclusive of Rs. 24,535 for legal expenses and Rs. 13,600 for maintenance allowance to partners while they assisted in the liquidation. Rs. 13,889 was recovered by commissions on account sales rendered after the failure, and the investments by the committee yielded a profit of Rs. 19,775, in addition to interest. Thanks were tendered to the trustees (Messrs. W. M. Macaulay and T. H. Moore) for the manner in which they had discharged the duties entrusted to them; and a sum of Rs. 6,000 was ordered to be divided among the members of the committee (except Mr. Mackintosh Balfour) as an honorarium for their services.

WE are glad to hear that Miss Birchenough's theatrical scheme promises to be successful. The prospectus was published only on Monday morning, and already there have been (up to yesterday afternoon) thirteen boxes and fifty-three stalls taken, and His Excellency the Governor has secured two of the boxes. This is not bad for three days, especially considering that many probable subscribers are now absent at Poona. A subscription for thirteen boxes and fifty-three stalls means some Rs. 3,600 only, so that there still remain a good many seats to be booked, before the Rs. 10,000 subscription required has been promised. We believe the subscription list will be closed on the 24th inst., by which time, we trust, a sufficient amount will have been guaranteed to warrant Miss Birchenough in proceeding with the venture.

A MEETING of the Justices of the Peace for the city of Bombay was held in the Durbar-room of the Town Hall yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of electing a member of the Corporation in the place of Mr. Grattan Geary, who has ceased to be a member of the Corporation by reason of his absence from Bombay for more than three consecutive months. In the absence of Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, who owing to indisposition was unable to be present, Mr. J. R. Duxbury was elected to the chair. In opening the meeting the Chairman remarked that many of those present must regret that the absence of Mr. Geary was the occasion for the election of a new member of the Corporation; but it would be a satisfaction to them that they had a good man to fill the place. Mr. Rugoonath Khote said that in the absence of Sir Frank Souter he had to propose that Mr. Winter be elected a member of the Corporation in the room of Mr. Geary. It would have given him much greater pleasure to propose the resolution had there been other candidates; but as it was he would be wanting in his duty unless he were to state that Mr. Winter would be an eligible successor to Mr. Geary. They all knew that Mr. Winter had been a resident in Bombay for several years, and no doubt he had considerable knowledge of the city and the city's wants. He thought they would all agree with him when he said that Mr. Winter would be a great acquisition to the Corporation. Mr. Goculdas seconded the resolution, and Mr. Winter was unanimously elected.

WE hear that Mr. Greaves intends to resign his seat on the Corporation, as he will shortly leave India for England.

A CASE of cruel torture on "a poor innocent woman" and her husband, practised by the police in the Dharwar zillah, with a view to extort a confession, formed the subject of an appeal heard at the High Court yesterday by Mr. Justice Melvill and Mr. Justice Kemball. Three persons—a police patel, a sepoy, and a Desai—were implicated in the charge. The former two were, in the absence of the Desai, who had absconded, convicted and sentenced each to seven years' imprisonment. The Desai, Venkajee Shivajee, surrendered himself subsequently and was tried before Mr. E. T. Candy, acting Session Judge of Dharwar, on charges similar to those on which the other two men had been convicted and sentenced. The facts of the case were that on the 8th July, 1880, a theft was committed in the village of Devikop, and two persons were arrested on suspicion. The wife of one of them, named Daul, went off to another village to complain to the fouzdar about her husband being placed in custody. Soon after her return to her own village she and her husband were said to have confessed to being concerned in the theft, and to have produced some rupees as part of the stolen property. There were marks of recent beating on both the wife and the husband. They were both acquitted of the charge of theft; and an enquiry was directed to be made as to the ill-treatment they had received. In Mr. Candy's opinion, there was not a shadow of a doubt as to the ill-treatment. The Desai, who had absconded, surrendered himself in March last, when all his estate was attached. Mr. Candy was of opinion that the Desai, a Brahmin holding a very influential position, deserved a severer punishment than the other men. Remembering that he had been enjoying in security under the British Government a large landed estate, and that he took "advantage of his position to inflict a cruel torture on a poor innocent woman," the Session Judge felt how necessary it was that a striking example should be made. The Desai was sentenced to transportation for seven years, and the rents and profits of all his moveable and immoveable estate were during the period of his transportation forfeited to Government. Their Lordships, in disposing of the appeal, sustained the conviction, but reduced the sentence to three years' rigorous imprisonment. The order as to the forfeiture of the prisoner's estate was cancelled.

THE Bank of Bombay yesterday raised its rates of interest and discount one per cent. all round.

THE Agent of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation here has received a telegram from the head office stating that for the half-year ended 30th June last a dividend of £1-10s. per share has been declared (equal to 10⅜ per cent. per annum), and $100,000 added to Reserve Fund, making the latter now $1,900,000.

WE hear from Baroda that the preparations for the festivities in connection with the installation of the young Gaekwar in December are already receiving attention, and arrangements have been made to have the city and the public park lighted by the electric light.

THE Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor informs us that His Excellency will leave Kirkee by the mail-train at 5-29 this (Thursday) morning, the 18th instant, alighting at 10-26 at Thana, where His Excellency will perform the ceremony of opening the new water-works, and proceeding to the Byculla station in the afternoon. From Byculla His Excellency will drive to Grant-road, and will travel by Thursday night's mail-train to Broach, where he will inspect the Nerbudda bridge and other points of interest in connection with the B. B. and C. I. Railway. At 2-50 on Friday afternoon, the 19th instant, His Excellency will proceed to Surat, where he will remain over Saturday, returning to Bombay by the mail-train due at Church Gate-street at 10-21 on Sunday morning. While in Bombay His Excellency will be the guest of the Lord Bishop, but will attend at the Secretariat daily for the transaction of public business.

WE hear that the change in the Western India Rifle Association rules which places "any military breach loader" on a par with the regulation Martini has caused a good deal of dissatisfaction, and one of the most influential members of the council of management will ask that body to revert to the old rule admitting only military breach loaders that carry the Government ammunition.

A CONFERENCE consisting of certain railway authorities and Government officials will, the Lahore paper hears, be shortly held in Calcutta to discuss a proposal to abolish the present Railway Police.

VOLUNTEERS in this country who have hitherto had nothing to gain and much to lose by joining the movement, the Civil and Military Gazette says, will be pleased to hear that the matter has attracted Lord Ripon's attention, and will, no doubt, at his hands, receive all the consideration it so well deserves. Before many months are over some substantial recognition of voluntary service may be looked for, and the extent of the encouragement the Government is prepared to afford will be definitely settled and published. We hope that before coming to conclusions, His Lordship will take into his confidence some of the many officers who have laboured long in the cause, and know thoroughly what is really wanted to make the movement popular and its members efficient.

THE following is the programme of the Bishop of Calcutta's visitation of the Punjab and Sind, and parts of the N.-W. P., 1881:—His Lordship leaves Calcutta on the 22nd September; arrives at Cawnpore on 24th September, leaves on 27th September; Simla, 28th September to 5th October; Dugshai, 6th October; Kasauli, 6th October; Sabathu, 7th October; Umballa, 8th to 11th October; Umritsur, 11th to 18th October; Ferozepore, 18th to 20th October; Jhelum, 21st to 22nd October; Rawalpindi, 22nd to 25th October; Attock, 25th to 26th October; Nowshera, 26th to 27th October; Peshawar, 27th October to 1st November; Multan, 4th to 7th November; Sukkur, 8th November; Hydrabad, 9th to 10th November; Kurrachee, 10th to 14th November; Lahore, Mian Mir, 16th to 23rd November; Delhi, 24th to 30th November; Agra, 30th November to 7th December; Allahabad, 8th to 15th December; Benares, 15th to 22nd December; Calcutta, 23rd December.

THE following young ladies were elected to the Bath School for officers' daughters, on the 29th June last:—Miss F. R. Blyth, 5,579; Miss E. M. Geraghty, 3,402; Miss L. J. Roberts, 4,134; Miss D. R. Mahon, 3,971; Miss L. G. Hillman, 3,942; Miss E. C. Todd, 3,938.

THE following account of the roundabout proceedings requisite to secure a trifling but necessary improvement in a barrack may perhaps, to some extent, explain how it is that the unhealthy Ghorpooree barracks at Poona have been allowed to continue so long occupied. A contemporary says that "if a chimney smokes in a barrack at Rangoon, the difficulty is encountered as follows: the officer commanding the troops who occupy the building refers the matter to the proper staff officer, whoever he may be; he communicates with the military staff at Madras, and the Commander-in-Chief at that Presidency brings the question to the notice of the local Government. The Government of Madras then addresses the Government of India at Simla, and the papers on the subject travel about that pleasant station for a while in boxes. There a despatch is prepared, and finally sent to the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, who sets the machinery of his administration in motion, and then the officer in charge of military works at Rangoon sends for a mistree, and the chimney is set to rights. Some impatient reformers want to alter the system, but the Army organization authorities of the India Office declare that the greatness of the British empire in the East has grown up under the existing system, and that it is better to let well alone."

THE new Secretary to the Government of India in the Agricultural Department, Mr. Buck, is engaged, it is stated, in communicating with the local Governments, with the view of organizing a system under which the recommendations of the Famine Commission in the matter of agricultural reform in India may be carried out. So far the Government of India has done no more than re-establish the old department; and that department was never able formerly to do much in the direction of agricultural reform, for want of local machinery, or funds with which local machinery could be organized.

THE reports of the local Governments on the progress made in the search for valuable Sanskrit manuscripts in Indian private libraries show results of the highest importance. In Madras the first volume of Dr. Oppert's list, containing a description of 8,376 manuscripts, has been published, and another volume is in course of preparation; while Dr. Burnell's catalogue of Tanjore manuscripts, containing 12,375 works, has been printed. In the Bombay Presidency Santinath's library was inspected by Dr. Buhler and found to contain 300 M. SS. of great antiquity, six dating from the beginning of the 12th century. The Samaghavna Pada library was also examined by a native pandit, whose report shows it to contain several very ancient M. SS., among them a copy of the Sasvata Kosha, the oldest known Sanskrit dictionary. Dr. Buhler purchased 429 volumes for the Government, including much that is rare and important; and Professor Bhandarkar purchased at Poona a number of M. SS., including one hitherto unknown. In Bengal seven fasciculi of Dr. Rajendra Lala Mitra's list, describing 842 separate codices, were published; and the learned Doctor also published a catalogue of the library of the Maharaja of Bikanir, describing upwards of 2,000 M. SS. As many as 956 M. SS., several of them very rare and the majority new to the Bengal Asiatic Society's collection, were acquired by purchase or copying. In the North-Western Provinces and Oude, the labours of Pandits Dhandi Raj and Devi Prasad resulted in the discovery of 103 and 77 new M. SS. respectively. In the Panjab Pandit Kasi Nath Kante examined and catalogued the libraries of Pandit Hrishi Kesha, Jwala Datta Prasada, and Pandit Dilaram, containing respectively 227, 2,500, and 430 M. SS., about 190 of which, in all, are said to be rare.

MR. CHARLES GRANT'S appointment to be Foreign Secretary on Sir Alfred Lyall's departure next month, the Pioneer thinks, will have surprised no one who has been fairly considering the probabilities of the situation. "Of course Mr. Grant will be regarded as a lucky man to have passed, in the short course of two or three years, from the comparative obscurity of the Central Provinces to an appointment which is always looked upon as the blue ribbon of the Government service. Governorships and Lieutenant-Governorships may be offices of greater dignity, but the Foreign Secretaryship is at once the most fascinating, influential, and important of all the appointments in the gift of the Viceroy. It was only the other day that the emergencies of work in the Legislative Council led to the selection of Mr. Grant to superintend certain measures in which his province was especially interested. Brought in this way into the Simla focus, he was chosen to replace Mr. Bernard as Home Secretary; and now, although he has not hitherto been specially connected with the work of the Foreign Department, the Government has grown familiar with him as a man of an eminently trustworthy judgment,—cool-headed, acute, and versatile,—and the propriety of its action in choosing him to succeed Sir Alfred Lyall is vindicated by the fact that, for months past, the arrangement has been anticipated by people behind the scenes as that which seemed the most advisable."

A RETURN, dated 1st July last, shows that 9,076 soldiers were located in the hills in the Bengal Presidency this summer—a percentage of 24·32 on the total number of troops in the Presidency. There were also in the hills 731 women and 1,456 children, the wives and families of soldiers.

IN prospect of the telegraph tariff in India coming up for further consideration, the Pioneer suggests that the authorities might be persuaded, perhaps, to revise their charges for Press telegrams. "The rates are absurdly high, and not much encouragement is given to newspaper enterprise in the direction of telegraphic news. During the day (from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.) 24 words are sent for one rupee; during the night 36 words. In England the rates are 75 words for one shilling during the day, and 100 words at night. It is true that the distances and cost of maintenance are greater in India than in England; but the ordinary rates are enormously higher, and as Press telegrams really serve public ends, the charges for them should be lowered to the smallest possible figure. The curse of Indian telegraphy comes from the service messages sent by public officials and departments: these have grown to such an extent that ordinary work is frequently swamped, and at last a check has had to be put upon precedence messages. This is a step in the right direction, and the telegraph authorities are to be congratulated for their courage in the matter; but the real remedy lies in the hands of Government, which should try to reduce the length of service messages, which now occupy the signallers day and night. The eccentricity of the rules in regard to Press telegrams is wonderful: a message of 1,000 words, which in an English office is looked upon as a mere trifle, is rejected by an Indian office, such as Simla, with the intimation that only 500 words can be received. A message must be published as received, or the newspaper is liable to be charged the full ordinary rates: it must not be modified or condensed, no matter how compromising its purport may be. Luckily this rule is looked upon as a dead letter. Why should not newspapers receive every encouragement to use the wires with the greatest freedom? The revenue of the department might not be much increased, but the whole community would benefit thereby; and that should be a sufficient reason in these days of liberalism and advanced thought."

THE day before the last mail left England, a Parliamentary paper was issued containing correspondence respecting the affairs of Tripoli. The despatches, which are twelve in number, are all of recent date. Writing to Lord Lyons on July 15, Lord Granville thus expresses the views of the Government:—"I have received your Excellency's despatch of the 4th instant, reporting some observations made to you by M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire in conversation of the same day, with reference to the present state of affairs at Sfax, and the possibility of serious complications in case of fanatical outbursts of Arabs in Tripoli extending to Tunis; and your Excellency states that M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire, after adverting to certain measures taken by the Porte in the present state of things, added that he had thought it necessary to address to the Porte a serious warning on the subject. I have now [illegible] Excellency that, in view of the unque[illegible]poration of Tripoli in the Turkish[illegible] well as its proximity to Egypt, H[illegible] Government could not regard interfere[illegible] over description on the part of the Fr[illegible]ment in that province in the same ma[illegible] viewed the recent occurrences at Tunis[illegible] Majesty's Government should take this [illegible] question of Tripoli cannot, they feel assu[illegible] source of surprise to that of France, since th[illegible] on all occasions when the question of the exte[illegible] of French influence in the direction of Egypt has been under discussion, been perfectly frank in their explanations with the French Government on the subject. It is very essential that no time should be lost in conveying an intimation to the French Government that a new and very different question would arise should that Government endeavour to exercise any exclusive or special influence in regard to Tripoli; which, Her Majesty's Government must not conceal, might bear unfavourably upon the cordial friendship which has so long happily subsisted between the two countries, and which, as Her Majesty's Government believe, is essential to the maintenance of their mutual interests, as well as most valuable to the peace and general well-being of Europe." Lord Lyons having laid the substance of this despatch before M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire, was assured by him that as regards Tripoli, "the French Government regarded it as indisputably a part of the Ottoman Empire, and they had no intention whatever either of invading it, or of attempting to establish any exclusive or predominant influence in it." As regarded Egypt, M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire declared "that it would be a real and great sorrow to him if anything should occur to weaken the close and cordial understanding between France and England with respect to that country. He was occupied in endeavouring to frame that good understanding to account at the present moment, for the purpose of improving the judicial system and other matters, and he relied upon it to produce prosperity in Egypt and to consolidate friendship between France and England." The collection concludes with a despatch from Earl Granville to Lord Dufferin instructing him to advise the Porte to exercise great prudence in not giving causes of plausible complaint to the French Government.

MEETING OF CREDITORS OF W. NICOL AND CO.

A MEETING of the creditors of Messrs. W. Nicol and Co. of Bombay and Messrs. Fleming and Co. of Kurrachee was held yesterday at the office of the trustees, 24, Apollo-street, when a report showing the liquidation of the estates of the firms under the provisions of the deed of trust, dated 14th October, 1878, was submitted. There were present Mr. H. R. Cormack, chairman of the committee, presiding; Mr. Mackintosh Balfour, secretary and treasurer, Bank of Bombay; Mr. Wilson, of Messrs. Finlay, Muir and Co., attorney for the City of Glasgow Bank; Messrs. W. M. Macaulay, Sunderrao Raghanath, Cursondas Vullubdas, Ghellabhoy Haridas, and Purbut Ludha. Mr. Brown, of Messrs. Hore, Conroy, and Brown, solicitors to the trustees, was also in attendance. Mr. Macaulay read the notice convening the meeting.

The Chairman said.—This meeting has been convened for the purpose of reporting to you the steps taken by us in the matter of the liquidation of the estate of Messrs. W. Nicol and Co., Bombay, and Messrs. Fleming and Co., Kurrachee. We had hoped to have held this meeting nearly a year ago, but owing to disputes now happily, though not long, settled, and to its having been thought desirable that notice of the proposed meeting should be given to the creditors in England of the estate, it has not been possible to call you together on an earlier date. It will probably be within your recollection that at the creditors' meeting held immediately after the failure of Messrs W. Nicol and Co., on the 14th, 1878, you were informed by Mr. Hamilton Maxwell that the Kurrachee property, Elphinstone Lodge, Matheran, shares in the Bombay Saw Mills Company (Limited), the Mofussil Company (Limited), and the Carwar Company (Limited) and other securities were under lien to the City of Glasgow Bank. Under legal advice we disputed these liens, and an agreement was in December, 1879, come to by way of compromise between the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank and ourselves, whereby they waived their alleged right to the securities in question, in consideration of claims being allowed to rank on this estate in respect of all unpaid bills drawn by Messrs. W. Nicol and Co. and Fleming and Co., on the City of Glasgow Bank. These claims were therefore admitted, subject to a deduction of sums aggregating £13,360-17-11, paid to certain bill holders by the trustee of Messrs. Smith, Fleming and Co., being a portion of the proceeds of cover remittances in transitu at the time of the suspension. In the following January the liquidation had reached a point which enabled us to declare a dividend of 5 per cent., which was accordingly declared. Shortly after this the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank entered into negotiations with us for the purchase of the remaining assets of the estate. At first the idea was to accept for the said remaining assets, with the exception of our interest in the Wynaad mining rights, the cash and Government paper in hand (the two last items amounting to about Rs. 1,97,000, a sum sufficient to pay the creditors a further dividend of 7 per cent). The cash and Government paper, when realized, would have put us in a position to pay another 1 per cent., so that in all a second dividend of 13 per cent. would have accrued to the creditors; but our price was not accepted by the liquidators, and an offer was made to us that the liquidators should pay us a sufficient sum to make up, with the Government paper and cash in hand, a dividend of 12½ per cent., and take over the remaining assets, always with the exception of the interest in the Wynaad mining rights. We on our part, on further consideration, reduced our demand to an amount sufficient to enable us to pay to the creditors a dividend of 7½ per cent., the estate of course retaining its interest in the mining rights. This was agreed to, and the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank further agreed to pay Rs. 15,000 for the further cost of the liquidation. After considerable delay and negotiation an agreement, dated the 7th December, 1880, was entered into with the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank, and the dividend of 7½ per cent. was declared on the 7th February last, making in all 12½ per cent. returned to creditors on the amounts of their claims. The interest in the Wynaad mining rights has more than once been alluded to in this report as having been expressly excluded from the sale of the assets. This interest will consist of 50 per cent. of the profits of the Indian Gold Mines Company (Limited) of Glasgow (to which company the rights were sold) up to the sum of £4,000,000. In the event of the profits reaching this sum, all indebtedness of the estate will be extinguished; and other provisions have been made as to the subsequent division of the profits between the partners in the firms of Messrs. W. Nicol & Co. and Fleming & Co., and the Indian [illegible] Company (Limited). It may here be [illegible] suit of "Harris versus Fleming," [illegible] two-thirds of the interest in the [illegible] has been quite recently decided in [illegible]rst instance in England in favour of [illegible]s the mines have not yet been fully [illegible] to estimate the value of this [illegible] the work is, we understand, being [illegible] pushed by the Indian Gold Mines Com[illegible] it is expected that some trustworthy in[illegible]n will soon be obtained as to immediate [illegible] and future probabilities of profit. In the [illegible] of the gold mines yielding further assets to [illegible]estate, a question may arise for settlement, as [illegible] the right of the bill holders or the City of [illegible]gow Bank to participate in those assets, such right, if any, having been reserved by the agreement [illegible] the sale to the bank of the other assets. [illegible]liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank have already approached us with a suggestion of compromise of this question, but we have felt unable to consider the matter in the absence of a formulated claim. Should such a claim be formulated, the creditors may rest assured that it will receive the most careful consideration, regard being had to the interests of this estate. The admitted claims on this estate aggregate Rs. 1,07,34,641-7, the dividend of 12½ per cent. on which has absorbed Rs. 13,41,830. The cost of the liquidation up to date has been Rs. 84,824-10-1, inclusive of Rs. 24,535-1-5 for legal expenses and Rs. 13,600 for maintenance allowance to partners while they assisted in the liquidation. Rs. 13,889-11 was recovered by commissions, &c., on accounts sales rendered after the failures, and our investments yielded a profit of Rs. 19,775-15, in addition to interest. For the further information of creditors are laid on the table the two agreements with the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank, and the agreement as to the sale of the mining rights. There is also a statement showing particulars of all receipts and payments since the trustees took charge of the estate. In conclusion, we wish to record our thanks to you for the confidence in which they have discharged the duties entrusted to them.

Mr. Balfour then said.—Gentlemen,—The statement just made by the chairman tells you the result of the liquidation of the estates of W. Nicol and Co. and Fleming and Co.; and I am sure that not even the most sanguine of you estimated at the time those firms failed that you would receive a dividend of 12½ per cent. upon your claims. The result has been attained by the honourable and straightforward conduct of the liquidators of the City of Glasgow Bank. They saw, as we did, that if we quarrelled over the assets on which we both claimed a lien, the value might be dissipated in law charges, and naught but a barren victory gained by either side. Two compromises were accordingly arranged with them at different dates, as told you by the chairman, and I think these compromises were very much made in your interests. By the later certain sums were provided to meet charges, and it is specially in regard to a portion of these charges that I am now addressing you. The services of the committee appointed to supervise the liquidation of the estates of W. Nicol & Co. and Fleming & Co. have been of an onerous character. The deed of assignment made no provision for their remuneration, and although, probably, you would not object to allow the commission of 2½ per cent. on the amount of assets realized, you will not on this occasion be asked to do so. Commission at the rate named would amount to about Rs. 34,000. Now, amongst the charges provided for was a modest sum of Rs. 6,000, or Rs. 2,000 for each of my three colleagues in the committee of liquidation; and this I ask you to pass as an honorarium, in acknowledgment of the duties performed by these gentlemen in carrying out the liquidation. Before I left last year for England, the sale of the assets to the liquidators had been arranged, and as I did not expect to be back in time to attend this meeting, and I had had the honour of being elected chairman at each meeting of the committee, I deemed it my duty to place on record, before my departure, my intention, had I been present, to have proposed the resolution I now ask you to pass. I am glad I am enabled to do so in person, because I can now add that I anticipated the liquidation would have been closed in [illegible] July, 1880, and the services of Mr. Cormack, Mr. Cursondas Vullubdas, and Mr. Purbut Ludha have been continued up to the present time. I should like to take this opportunity to say all the think the best thanks of this meeting, and of [illegible] creditors of the estates of W. Nicol and Company and Fleming and Company, are due to Mr. Harding, who negotiated the sale of the interests of the estates in the Wynaad gold fields and obtained the terms sanctioned by the chairman. Prospective profits are sometimes easily parted with, and are too often worthless; but I am very sanguine that something at least will come to the creditors from their interest in the gold fields, and on that something your committee of liquidation will not hesitate to claim their 2½ per cent. commission.

It was proposed by Mr. Wilson, seconded by Mr. Sunderrao Raghunath, and resolved, that Rs. 6,000 be divided among the members of the committee (except Mr. Balfour) as an honorarium for their services.

Mr. Cormack, on behalf of the committee, tendered thanks for the honorarium; and the proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

MISSIONARY WORK IN INDIA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Apropos of your remarks regarding the speech of the Rev. Mr. Cooper on the ungodliness of his fellow countrymen proving a hindrance to his missionary efforts, a rather good story may be told, which comes from a place not very far from the usual scene of Mr. Cooper's labours, and which shows that these efforts may be retarded by misconceptions arising from the conduct of others than those whom Mr. Cooper describes as not being all he could wish.

It was the practice of a certain missionary to go about in his town, accompanied by his wife and some twelve or fifteen young women and girls belonging to the orphanage attached to the mission. On arriving at a village, a procession used to be formed, the missionary and his wife being followed by the native girls in orderly files; and they advanced singing hymns until more open space was reached, where a halt was made. The missionary then preached; a few more hymns were sung; and the procession moved on to the next village. One day this happened at a village where the Deputy Commissioner chanced to be encamped. The procession had marched through the village and had assembled in the Malguzari compound, where a sermon was preached and some hymns sung. After they had gone, the Malguzar called on the Deputy Commissioner, and conversation turned on the Padri Sahib, who had just visited the village. The Malguzar declared that he disapproved highly of the Padri Sahib's proceedings, and when asked for his reasons, replied, "Why, sir, you see, I consider that an old man like that should move about the country with such a big zenana." The Deputy Commissioner, who must evidently have been one of the Rev. Mr. Cooper's "noble exceptions," remonstrated and tried to explain; but all he could get out of the Malguzar was, "Ah, Sahib, we know that you lead a good life, but we don't know anything about these people."

Might not this story teach the Rev. Mr. Cooper to issue also a note of warning to his fellow missionaries, calling on them to study a little the feelings and prejudices of the people among whom they are labouring? Many instances could be given, by almost any officer whose district has been the field of missionary operations, of the cause of Christianity having been injured by the unyielding and narrow-minded bigotry of missionaries or their fellow labourers from the Army and Civil Service, and by their want of knowledge of, or total disregard for, the social and religious feelings of the natives. Amongst them there are no doubt many "noble exceptions" whom natives and Europeans alike admire and respect, but many, again, are "not all we could wish," and the Rev. Mr. Cooper, and other zealous workers like him, would find what would probably be a more useful and profitable field of labour in trying to teach such men to show a little sympathy for feelings

ROYAL MILITARY ACADEMY, WOOLWICH.

THE Duke of Cambridge, Field-Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, visited the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, on July 25, for the purpose of presiding over the award of commissions and prizes to the gentlemen cadets at that institution. His Royal Highness was accompanied by General Sir Charles H. Ellice, K.C.B., Adjutant-General to the Forces ; Lieut. Gen. Sir Garnet J. Wolseley, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., Liut.-Gen. Sir C. B. P. Colonel W. D. Marsh, Royal Engineers, secretary and treasurer, read the list of prize-winners, and His Royal Highness presented the prizes to the successful cadets. In doing so he took occasion to highly to compliment Senior Under-Officer E. Edmunds for the very satisfactory position he had attained, and also for the high character he had received.

Mr. James E. Edmunds, for distinguished proficiency, Pollock medal and memoir ; for exemplary conduct, a regulation sword ; for mathematics and mechanics, mathematical instruments in sling case and field glasses ; for fortification and geometrical drawing, a despatch box and travelling writing-desk ; for artillery, a travelling dressing-bag ; for military history, a carriage clock ; and for drills and exercises, a revolver, holster, and belt. Mr. Henry H. Clark, senior cadet of the Royal Artillery, Turner Memorial Scholarship, Mr. Gordon H. Paske, for classics, a Gladstone travelling bag. Mr. Edwin M. B. Newman, for chemistry and physics, a carriage clock. Mr. Alfred Capel-Cure, for riding and sword exercise, saddle, bridle, and hunting spurs. Mr. Reginald J. Rowell, for military topography, carriage clock. Mr. Charles M. Gonne, for landscape drawing, box of moist colours, easel, and case of brushes. The Hon. H. G. Jolliffe, for Italian, a field-glass. Mr. W. A. Macbean, for German, a field-glass. Mr. Charles E. Salveren, for gymnastics, a revolver, holster, and belt.

His Royal Highness, addressing the cadets, especially complimented Mr. J. E. Edmunds, but said that with respect to the reports as a whole he was far from satisfied, for although the conduct of the cadets generally had been pronounced satisfactory there had been certain irregularities which, if not very serious, had been such as to incur his displeasure. He was at a loss to understand how young men, claiming to be gentlemen could disgrace themselves by ungentlemanly behaviour, and imperfect as might be that view of their conduct, it had the more important fault of being unsoldierly. Without discipline they were worse than useless, for they could not expect men to obey them if they did not understand obedience themselves. Discipline was the first principle of a soldier's life, without it, anarchy would be an idle mob, not only useless but dangerous. Discipline, therefore, must be maintained, and there would have, and if it came not voluntarily it must be enforced. This would be a bad thing, but whatever was necessary would have to be submitted to. On the question of studies there was much to deplore, for the results were low, and too little attention had been paid to the most important subjects. The cadets were too anxious to gain marks, and took up a number of studies to the neglect of purely military subjects, which ought always to be kept in the foreground both at this institution and also at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. In looking at the results he made some allowance for the short period of residence which they had at the Academy, for to have only one year and ten months preparation was a disadvantage which they had to submit to while the demand for officers continued above the average, but he did not complain of a mere falling-off in marks so much as he did of general carelessness and inattention to those subjects which were most essential to an officer of the Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers. The gentlemen now about to receive Her Majest's commission would have to continue their studies and work hard in order to maintain the reputation of the two scientific corps which they were about to join—a reputation which was not confined to this country, but extended throughout Europe and the civilised world. It would have been pleasent to him if he could simply have congratulated them on passing out of the Academy ; but a list of marks extending from 46,000 down to 18,000 was too wide a range for congratulation, and he could not honestly refrain from saying that they might have done better. They might not all have the same genius, but he was satisfied that some of them might have made a better figure of merit. He knew that their masters and professors did their utmost, and the excellent governor of the academy was most anxious and assiduous in promoting their advancement, and he would only hope that the cadets who remained would make an earnest effort, while they had the opportunity, and that those who were sent to serve in the army would diligently apply themselves to render efficient service in the bright sphere of duty laid before them.

The Duck of Cambridge and staff returned to town after the proceedings terminated, and later in the evening a grand ball was given by the gentlemen cadets in the School of Arms, at which upwards of 1000 visitors were present. On July 26 the gentlemen cadets broke up for their usual holidays, which will terminate on Sept. 20 next.

The following Cadets, in order of merit, with the total number of marks obtained, are declared by the Civil Service Commissioners to be successful candidates at the examination, held in June and July, 1881, for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich :—
